

“Some people call these objects
but this is our life”

My mother used to tell me that, when I was still a baby in the cradle, she would strap my cradle to her saddle and drive a herd of ponies accross the prairies, sometimes all day long.”

Arapaho woman, ca. 1930